Deerhurst Resort & Conference Centre

General Information

Set just north of Canada's largest city, the Muskoka region has been a magnet for visitors for well over a century. It's more than 1,600 lakes, unspoiled wilderness and laid-back attitude makes it an ideal place for a retreat. More recently, Muskoka's casual charms have been enhanced by excellent golf courses, soothing spas, and top-notch restaurants. While the region is at its most popular in summer, when Hollywood and hockey stars lounge at their lakefront "cottages," this is an enticing destination to visit at any time of the year.

Look at any map of the region and you'll soon notice a large shaded area. That's Algonquin Park, one of the most naturally beautiful places on earth. Deerhurst Resort sits just off the southwest corner of the 7,700 sq. km. wilderness preserve, making it an ideal daytrip for sightseeing as well as guided hiking, biking and canoe trips arranged through the resort.
